

Student Evaluation for Voice

Voice is strong and individual.

- The paper should be shared aloud.
- The enthusiasm will get the reader hooked.
- The writer has considered the audience, their interests and their needs.
- The voice matches the topic.

Voice comes and goes.

- Some parts should be shared aloud.
- Some parts lack enthusiasm and you can hear that in the writing.
- The audience was considered part of the time, but not always.
- The voice is OK for the topic.

Voice cannot be heard much.

- Not ready to be shared aloud
- The writer sounds bored.
- The voice doesn't fit the topic very well.
- The voice should be stronger or different.