

Thoughts and Things to Do:

SCIENCE COACHES' DIALOGUE
Middle School
Student Work

December 2, 2009 (Regions 1& 2) – Hialeah Gardens Senior December 3, 2009 (Regions 3, 4, & 5) – Glades Middle 8:30 a.m. – 3:30 p.m.

Facilitator: Dr. Ava D. Rosales, Instructional Supervisor

Welcome and Introductions

Handling Expectations and Tension

..... A Reflection on Personal – School – District Goals

Attributes of a Learning Community (Regions I and II only)

..... Sharing Stories: What's Productive and Satisfying?

Feedback Nightmares

..... PLC protocol for providing feedback to colleagues

Break

Student Work Gallery

..... The Value and Concerns

A Closer Look at School-site Student Work

..... Implementing the Quality Quest Protocol

LUNCH

Student Work Discussions (continued)

Implementing Formative Assessment (Floating Break)

..... Analyzing Probes

..... Aligning Formative Assessment Probes with Student Work

Lesson Planning through the 5 Es

..... Christine Todd-Gibson, PROMiSE

Reflections/Follow-up Assignment

Continued thought: Misconceptions are not bad! They can be a good thing when teachers PURPOSEFULLY use them to bridge students' ideas with conceptual understanding of science. –Page Keeley

Contact information:

305-995-4537 (P)
305-995-1991 (F)
arosales@dadeschools.net
Mail Code: 9628

Starting the dialogue:

science.dadeschools.net
click on Discussion Board – bottom right

