

Town-Hall Rundown

Brief Recap

Introduction – Pre-recorded

Segment #1

I. Introduction :

- Oscar Haza will greet the audience, thank sponsors and introduce panelists and special guests (1 minute.)
- Brief presentation of the main issues to be addressed at the event:
 - o How will the three institutions work together to breach the gap between the needs of our community and the funding available?
 - o How are FIU and MDC working with MDCP to improve the education pipeline and job training for the coming years?

Each panelist will have 2 minutes to make an opening statement and address these two issues.

II. Questions by Journalists (one minute each)

- Bernadette Pardo (WQBA)
- Roberto Rodriguez (WQBA)
- Myriam Marquez (El Nuevo Herald)
- Ninoska Perez Castellon (WAQI)
- TBD (Channel 23)

Questions by special guests:

- Helen Aguirre
- Univision Online

2 minutes will be allowed for each answer

COMMERCIAL BREAK

Segment #2

Oscar re-introduces the panelists and poses a new question:

- Given recent events involving violence in our schools, are there any plans to change security measures in our schools and colleges? (2 minutes answers for each panelist)
- Dra. Isabel will ask a follow up question (1 minute) (2 minute answers for each panelist)
- Another 5 questions from the audience will be addressed.

COMMERCIAL BREAK

Segment #3

Questions:

- How will MDC cope with the additional influx of students as state universities such as FIU continue to freeze enrollment? How will MDC deal with these additional students amid budget cuts?
- How can we protect our students from being left without a higher education?
- Additional questions from journalists will be addressed
- If time allows, another question by Helen Aguirre and Univision online will be addressed.

COMMERCIAL BREAK

Segment #4

Oscar Haza re-introduces the panel

- Questions by the audience (approximately 8, with 2 minutes for panelists' response)

Oscar thanks panelists, guests, audience, sponsors, etc,
End of Show