

UNPRECEDENTED EDUCATION TOWN HALL HOSTED BY UNIVISION
RADIO'S WQBA 1140 AM ON ISSUES AFFECTING EDUCATION

*Heds of Dade County Public Schools System, Miami Dade College and Florida
International University to participate in first-ever panel discussion*

WHO: Unvision Radio, and its Miami radio station WQBA 1140 AM, in conjunction with the Florida International University, Miami Dade College and Miami Dade County Public Schools to discuss, “Education in South Florida: Challenges and Solutions.”

Panelists include: Superintendent Alberto Carvalho, Miami Dade County Public Schools, Dr. Eduardo J. Padrón, President of Miami Dade College and Dr. Mark Rosenberg, President of Florida International University. Moderated by Univision Radio’s prestigious WQBA 1140 AM journalist, Oscar Haza

WHAT: This town-hall will be the first of its kind presenting South Florida’s education leaders as they interact with students, concerned parents, and members of the media. During this unprecedented event, the three educational leaders will share their ideas on how to work together to breach the gap between the needs of our community and the funding available. Attendees will be able to hear directly from this expert panel how their institutions will contribute to improve the education pipeline and job raining for the coming years.

WHEN: Education in South Florida: Challenges and Solutions
Wednesday, September 30, 2009 from 5-7 PM
Miami Dade College, Wolfson Campus
Chapman Conference Center
300 N.E. 2nd Ave, Miami
FREE Admission

Transportation will be available at designated locations.
Town Hall will be transmitted simultaneously via WQBA 1140 AM
